

Start the new year by preparing for a career in healthcare and getting your GED

We offer a FREE 12-week class for people who need a GED and are interested in a career in healthcare. This class prepares you to succeed in training for healthcare careers such as nurse • respiratory therapist • nurse assistant • pharmacy tech • EKG technician.

"The classes taught me about different jobs in healthcare, helped me plan a career for myself, and kept me motivated to start Nurse Assistant training while I get my GED."

- William J., student

"This class is great for me because I can learn medical technology and know I am better prepared for my goal of becoming a nurse."

- Yolanda O., student
